

RAYMOND BROWN

Group Safety Quality & Environment

Occupational health & safety policy

RAYMOND BROWN GROUP

The Raymond Brown Group aim to perform work in a so far as reasonably practicable manner, consistent with good construction practice and in accordance with required legislation. With the health and safety of our employees and all those likely to be affected by our operations of paramount importance each company within the Raymond Brown Group which includes:

Raymond Brown Construction Limited
Raymond Brown Minerals & Recycling Limited
Raymond Brown Building Limited
Wilkins Builders Limited

shall implement an Occupational Health & Safety Management System which shall be documented, implemented and maintained within a defined scope by :

Provision of adequate & appropriate resources to implement a Occupational Health & Safety Management System.

Preventing injury & ill health.

Achieving continual improvement in occupational health & safety performance by setting, monitoring & reviewing objectives.

Ensuring compliance with legal and other applicable requirements.

Making this policy available at all places of work and ensuring that all employees are aware of their occupational health & safety obligations.

Making this policy available to interested parties where requested.

The responsibility for Occupational Health & Safety Management is held by the company Managing Directors with ultimate responsibility held by the Group Managing Director however All members of staff are responsible for ensuring that occupational health & safety issues are understood, implemented and the aims of this policy are achieved.

This Occupational Health & Safety Management System Policy shall be reviewed at regular intervals to ensure that it continues to be relevant and is appropriate to the group company's activities.

K. White
Group Managing Director
1st June 2010